Exercise of or omission to exercise any right of Secured Party shall not affect any other subsequent right of Secured Party to exercise the same.

(o) Any carbon, photographic or other reproduction of any financing statement signed by Debtor is sufficient as a financing statement for all purposes, including without limitation, filing in any state as may be permitted by the provisions of the Uniform Commercial Code of such state.

(p) It is the intention of the parties hereto to comply with applicable usury laws; accordingly, it is agreed that notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in this Security Agreement, or in any of the documents evidencing the Obligations or otherwise relating thereto, no such provision shall require the payment or permit the collection of interest in excess of the maximum permitted by such laws. If any excess of interest in such respect is provided for, or shall be adjudicated to be so provided for, in this Security Agreement, or in any of the documents evidencing the Obligations or otherwise relating thereto, then in such event (a) the provisions of this paragraph shall govern and control, (b) neither the Debtor hereof nor his heirs, legal representatives, successors or assigns or any other party liable for the payment hereof, shall be obligated to pay the amount of such interest to the extent that it is in excess of the maximum amount permitted by such laws, (c) any such excess which may have been collected shall be, at the option of the holder of the instrument evidencing the Obligations, either applied as a credit against the then unpaid principal amount thereof or refunded to the Maker thereof and (d) the effective rate of interest shall be automatically subject to reduction to the maximum lawful contract rate allowed under applicable usury laws as now or hereafter construed by the courts having jurisdiction.

II. EVENTS OF DEFAULT AND REMEDIES

(a) The Debtor shall be in default under this Security Agreement upon the happening of any of the following events or conditions (herein sometimes called an "Event of Default"): (i) failure of Debtor to pay when due any interest on or any principal or installment of principal of any Obligations of Debtor to Secured Party; (ii) the occurrence of any event which under the terms of any evidence of indebtedness, indenture, loan agreement, security agreement or similar instrument permits the acceleration of maturity of any indebtedness of Debtor to Secured Party, or to others than Secured Party; (iii) default occurs in the observance or performance by Debtor of any provision of this agreement or of any note, assignment of transfer under or pursuant thereto; (iv) the dissolution, termination of existence, insolvency or business failure of the Debtor, or the application for the appointment of a receiver of any part of the property of the Debtor, or the commencement by or against the Debtor of any proceeding under any bankruptcy arrangement, reorganization, insolvency or similar law for the relief of debtors, or by or against any guarantor or surety for the Debtor, or upon the service of any warrant, attachment, levy or similar process in relation to a tax lien or assessment; (v) the Collateral becomes, in the judgement of Secured Party, unsatisfactory or insufficient in character or value; (vi) Secured Party receives notification that another person has or expects to acquire a purchase money security interest in the Collateral or any part thereof; or (vii) loss, theft, substantial damage, destruction or sale of the Collateral or any part thereof.

(b) Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, or if Secured Party deems payment of Debtor's Obligations to Secured Party to be insecure, and at any time thereafter, Secured Party may, at its option, without presentment, demand, notice of intention to accelerate, notice of acceleration, notice of non-payment, protest, notice of dishonor or any other notice whatsoever to Debtor or any other person obligated thereon, declare all Obligations secured hereby immediately due and payable and Secured Party shall thereupon have the rights and remedies of a Secured Party under the Texas Uniform Commercial Code, including without limitation, the right to sell, lease or otherwise dispose of any or all of the Collateral and to apply the proceeds thereof toward payment of any costs and expenses and attorneys' fees and legal expenses thereby incurred by the Secured Party and toward payment of the Obligations in such order or manner as the Secured Party may elect. Secured Party shall have the right to take immediate possession of the Collateral, with or without process of law, and for that purpose Secured Party may enter upon any premises on which the Collateral or any part thereof may be situated and remove the same therefrom. Secured Party may require Debtor to assemble the Collateral and make it available to Secured Party at a place to be designated by the Secured Party which is reasonably convenient to both parties. Unless the Collateral is perishable or threatens to decline speedily in value or is of a type customarily sold on a recognized market, Secured Party will send Debtor reasonable notice of the time and place of any public sale thereof or of the time after which any public sale or other disposition thereof is to be made. The requirement of sending a reasonable notice shall be met if such notice is mailed postage prepaid, to Debtor at the address designated at the beginning of this Security Agreement at least five days before the time of the sale or disposition. Expenses of retaking, holding, repairing, improving, maintaining, preparing for sale, selling or the like shall include Secured Party's reasonable attorneys' fees and legal expenses, plus interest thereon at the rate of ten percent (10%) per annum, and shall constitute additional Obligations of Debtor which shall be due on demand and which shall be secured by and entitled to the benefits of this Security Agreement. If the proceeds of any sale or other lawful disposition by Secured Party of the Collateral following its retaking, are insufficient to pay the expenses of retaking, repairing, holding, preparing the Collateral for sale, selling it and the like, to satisfy the Obligations of Debtor to Secured Party, then Debtor agrees to pay any deficiency, but Debtor shall be entitled to any surplus if one results after lawful application of all of such proceeds. Secured Party may remedy any default and may waive any default without waiving the default remedied or without waiving any other prior or subsequent default. The remedies of Secured Party hereunder are cumulative, and the exercise of any one or more of the remedies provided herein shall not be construed as a waiver of any of the other remedies of Secured Party.

III. SPECIAL LIMITATIONS AND RESTRICTIONS. Notwithstanding any provision in this Security Agreement to the contrary, if any of the Obligations secured in whole or in part by this Security Agreement are loans or other extensions of credit made under the authority of Chapters 3, 4, 5 or 15 of Article 5069, Texas Revised Civil Statutes (hereinafter called "Consumer Credit Code Obligations"), then as to such Consumer Credit Code Obligations this provision shall govern and control over all other provisions in this Security Agreement, and all such other provisions shall be interpreted and enforced in accordance with the following limitations and restrictions: (a) no provision in this Security Agreement shall constitute or be construed as an assignment of wages; (b) no provision in this Security Agreement shall constitute or be construed as a confession of judgment or a power of attorney running to Secured Party or to any third party to confess judgment or to appear for Debtor in a judicial proceeding; (c) no lien upon real property, if any, granted by this Security Agreement shall secure payment of any loan or other extension of credit made under the authority of Chapters 3, 4, 5 or 15 of Article 5069, Texas Revised Civil Statutes, as applicable; (d) no provision in this Security Agreement shall constitute or be construed as a waiver by Debtor of any rights accruing to Debtor under Chapters 3, 4, 5 or 15 of Article 5069, Texas Revised Civil Statutes, as applicable; and (e) no provision in this Security Agreement shall be construed as granting to Secured Party a contractual right to charge or receive any cost, charge, fee or expense which is either prohibited by or in excess of the amounts authorized by Chapters 3, 4, 5 or 15 of Article 5069, Texas Revised Civil Statutes, as applicable, and, in this connection, the costs, charges, expenses and fees which Secured Party is entitled to recover in collecting such Consumer Credit Code Obligations and exercising its rights and remedies under this Security Agreement as to such indebtedness shall be limited to amounts actually incurred by Secured Party as court costs, attorneys' fees assessed by court, lawful fees for filing, recording, or releasing to any public office any instrument in connection with the Collateral, reasonable costs for repossessing, storing, preparing for sale, or selling any Collateral, and like expenses, fees for noting liens upon or transferring certificates of title to motor vehicles, and such other costs, charges, expenses and fees which are either authorized by or not prohibited by Chapters 3, 4, 5 and 15 of Article 5069, Texas Revised Civil Statutes, as applicable. Provided, however, the limitations and restrictions set forth in this provision shall not apply to the extent Chapters 3, 4, 5 or 15 of the Article 5069, Texas Revised Civil Statutes, are preempted by other applicable laws, and Secured Party shall be entitled to rely upon such other applicable laws.
